

- the Middle English Scribal Texts Programme at Stavanger

The 5th Middle English Scribal Texts Symposium

- celebrating 10 years of Middle English projects at UiS

Friday 23 September 2016

Room KA U-050

- 0900-0945 Merja Stenroos, UiS: A feast of texts – 10 years of Middle English projects at Stavanger
- 0945-1015 Anastasia Khanukaeva, UiS: From marriages to wills: document types in the MELD corpus
- 1015-1045 coffee break
- 1045-1115 Kjetil V. Thengs, UiS: Scribal variation in late medieval Oxford: churchwardens' accounts as source material
- 1115-1145 Geir Bergstrøm, UiS: Clever things scribes do - a presentation of data from a study of the late medieval English documents of Cambridge
- 1145-1215 Martti Mäkinen, Hanken School of Economics, Helsinki: Stylo for R on MELD: computational stylometry tools in the study of Middle English dialects and genres
- 1215-1315 lunch break
- 1315-1345 Oliver Traxel, UiS: The medievalism of language: translations of modern texts into Old and Middle English
- 1345-1415 Sonya Lundblad, UiS: Old English after the Conquest: Beauty, Dream of the Rood, and the Saracen Commander's Complex Moment in King Horn.
- 1415-1445 Jeremy Smith, University of Glasgow: The pragmatics of punctuation in the transmission of Middle English verse
- 1445-1500 coffee break
- 1500-1530 Jacob Thaisen, University of Oslo: Orthographic standardisation and Secretary script
- 1530-1600 Delia Schipor, UiS: Da michi potum, soit faire come il este desire - multilingual events in the Hampshire Records Office material