

- the Middle English Scribal Texts Programme at Stavanger

The 6th Middle English Scribal Texts Symposium

Wednesday 22 August 2018
Room D-225, Kjølvs Egeland's Hus

- 0930-1000 Oliver Traxel, UiS: Reviving a past language stage: modern takes on Old English
- 1000-1030 Sonya Lundblad, UiS: Wounds, amputations, and catastrophes for Christ: the sensational body in South English Legendary hagiography and Handlyng Synne.
- 1030-1100 coffee break
- 1100-1130 Delia Schipor, UiS: The types and functions of multilingual events in personal documentary texts recorded in bishops' registers from Winchester in 1400-1525.
- 1130-1200 Kenneth Solberg-Harstad, UiS: Cataloguing the people in MELD: procedure, research potentials and an informal excursion into the personal names on record
- 1200-1300 lunch break
- 1300-1330 Michal Adamczyk, UiS: Diffusion of variable (th) in northern late Middle English
- 1330-1400 Merja Stenroos, UiS: Late medieval English documentary and literary language: how different are they?

